I understand that International School of Curacao has zero-tolerance policy for drug or alcohol use among its students. I also understand that ISC has an honor code, as well as other rules and regulations published in the Student/Parent Handbook that requires students to treat others with respect and not to lie, cheat, or steal.

I understand that the information submitted in the admissions process - including this form, the personal essay, and any supporting materials - is true and complete.

I understand that should any information prove to be false, this may disqualify my application or enrollment to the school.
